

Prof. Dr. Sherif Sheta

Professor of Ophthalmology - Chief of retina service-Cairo University.

Sheta graduated from the Cairo University with a bachelor degree in medicine (MBBCH) in 1976 with honors. He was appointed as a House officer then a resident in the ophthalmology department. In 1980, Sheta earned a Masters degree from Cairo University; he was appointed the position of an assistant lecturer of ophthalmology.

In 1984 he earned a Doctorate degree in Ophthalmology from Cairo University.

Sheta then traveled to North Carolina to earn a Vitreo-retinal fellowship from Duke University, his fellowship was completed in June 1986.

Following his fellowship, Sheta returned to Cairo University to practice and join the faculty as an assistant professor of Ophthalmology. He earned a degree as Professor of Ophthalmology in December 1994.

Currently, sheta is the Chairman at the Dar El Oyoum Ophthalmology Hospital, a member of the Egyptian Ophthalmology Society and vice president of the Egyptian Vitreo-retina Society

On an international level, Sheta is organizer and member of the Vail vitrectomy Vitreo-retinal club in Colorado – USA. Member of the Club Jules Gonin for retina specialists in Lausanne – Switzerland. Director of the training committee at the Arab Board for medical specialization in Damascus – Syria.

Sheta is also involved in philanthropy as he is chairman of Oyoum El Wadi organization, an NGO that provides free eye care and services to patients in Egypt and Sudan.

